Show Ada Pride this weekend!

Ada is the place to be this weekend! Friday night, the Ada Bulldogs host USV in Friday night football. Saturday, Main Street comes alive the same way it does every September – the Harvest and Herb Festival hits the street. New to this year's Saturday events are Family Day at ONU, and ONU is encouraging family members to visit the community of Ada as part of the festivities. We're not kidding; Ada is the place to be!

This weekend is a great time to show some of your Ada Pride! Please help us keep our community looking great. If you see trash on sidewalks, please pick it up and place it in the appropriate trash receptacle. If the sunshine prompts you to mow, make sure your grass clippings are not on the sidewalks or in the streets.

We all know downtown parking spots can be difficult to find, especially since the Depot parking lot and Main Street parking is closed on Saturday. The municipal lot located at the corner of North Gilbert Street and West Buckeye Street will be available for day time parking. Please remember to exercise patience when traveling through town this weekend, whether on foot or driving.

Let's work together to welcome to Ada the many guests who will be joining us this weekend!
